AGUILA AMMUNITION WELCOMES DAVID MILLER AS PRO STAFF TO TEAM AGUILA

CONROE, TEXAS – April 5, 2016 – Texas Armament & Technology (TxAT)/Aguila Ammunition welcomes professional clay shooter, David Miller to “Team Aguila” as part of the Aguila Ammo pro staff team.

Dave is most recently known for his record-breaking achievements. On May 16, 2015, at the Heartland Trap and Wobble Skeet in Harrisonville, Missouri, Miller shot 3,653 targets in 60 minutes, which set a new world record for “most sporting clay targets broken in one hour”. When he’s not breaking records, he’s busy working as the Shotgun Product Manager for CZ-USA, which is also his shotgun sponsor.

“Dave is the perfect addition to our team. He is energetic, passionate about supporting the industry, and a very talented shooter. With Aguila’s superb line of competition sporting clay loads, we can assist Dave as he excels in his shooting career and continues to break records,” states TxAT/Aguila Ammunition Director of Marketing, Kristi Drawe. “Dave has the skill. We have the high performing products. Together we make the perfect team.”

“Aguila competition shot shells have been the most consistent shot shell I have ever used. I am extremely impressed with the shot arrival timing of each round I fire,” says Miller. “As a professional clays shooter I have fired hundreds of thousands of rounds and I have experienced inconsistencies in other brands. I notice the Aguila shells give consistent arrival time, combined with hard clay target strikes which in turn, gives me the positive feedback I look forward to shot after shot.”

TxAT/Aguila Ammunition is pleased to be adding another well-rounded, accomplished shooter to their new pro staff team. Having a pro staff team is a new tactic for the evolving company.
