TEAM AGUILA SHOOTERS WIN THE WORLD ALL-AROUND AND NSCA U.S OPEN CHAMPIONSHIPS

CONROE, TEXAS- April 19th, 2018 –Aguila Ammunition would like to congratulate Team Aguila shooters, Derrick Mein and Cory Kruse on outstanding performances at the World All-Around and U.S. Open Sporting Clays Championships.

After days of shooting in seven categories including International trap, American trap (27-yard), International Skeet, American Skeet, ZZ Birds, Super Sport, and FITASC, Mein went on to win the title of World All-Around Shotgun Champion with a score of 501, leading the competition by 10 targets.

Kruse also spent long days shooting, crushing 192 out of 200 targets to irrevocably take home the High Overall (HOA) title in the U.S. Open Main Event.

“We couldn’t be more proud of Derrick and Cory for their accomplishments. Both men are very dedicated shooters and truly deserve these wins,” explains Kristi Heuring, Director of Marketing for Aguila Ammunition. “We are honored that champions like Derrick and Cory are shooting Aguila Ammunition. It’s a testament to our products, that our shooters are bringing home these major titles.”

The U.S. Open is an annual National Shooting Championship Association (NSCA) shoot that rotates location from year to year, allowing shooters nationally an opportunity to participate. The 2018 World All-Around and U.S. Open Championships were held from April 8 - 15 at Coyote Springs Sporting Clays in Tucson, Arizona.
